

Communication Objectives

The aim of Central Queensland University's Annual Report for 2005 is to:

- ✱ highlight the University's performance and achievements in line with the goals and objectives detailed in its Strategic Plan 2003–2007;
- ✱ demonstrate the University's effective management of resources;
- ✱ meet the University's formal reporting requirements to the State Minister for Education and Minister for the Arts.

This report will be of interest to Members of Parliament, CQU staff, students, prospective students, key stakeholders, other universities, researchers and interested members of the wider community.

Central Queensland University is also referred to as 'CQU' throughout this report.
