

The Bachelor of Nursing course is accredited by the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Accreditation Council (ANMAC).

It is an ANMAC accreditation requirement that on entry into the course that you meet the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia (NMBA) English Language requirements for registration as a registered nurse.

What are the requirements?

You must have attended and satisfactorily completed at least six years of primary and secondary education taught and assessed solely in English. At least two years of this education must have been between grades 7 and 12. This education must have been completed in one or more of the following countries; Australia, Canada, New Zealand, Republic of Ireland, South Africa, United Kingdom, United States of America. For further information, please refer to the NMBA website.

Please complete one of the declarations below. Sign, date and upload this form to your application.

- I declare that I meet the above stated English language requirements.

Name of applicant
Signature	Date

- I declare that I do NOT meet the above stated English language requirements.

Name of applicant
Signature	Date

What do I do if I don't meet these requirements?

If you have not completed the education listed in the requirements above, you will need to complete an approved English Language Test: IELTS (academic module), TOEFL iBT, PTE Academic or OET and achieve the minimum scores.

Information is available on CQUniversity's English Language Proficiency website.

Please note: CQUniversity reserve the right to request documentation to verify your declaration.

Need help uploading your documents?

Visit your CQUniversity application to attach your documentation.

If you have any questions about your application, we are here to help. Call us on 13 27 86 or submit a request via our online enquiry form.