

Steve Mullins History Prize

Description

The Steve Mullins History Prize is awarded to a CQUniversity student who submits an outstanding undergraduate History essay. This prize is named in honour of Associate Professor Steve Mullins who was a long-serving historian at CQUniversity.

Eligibility

The prize is open to any current CQUniversity student who has completed an advanced History unit.

Rules

- The essay must be based on a written assessment from a CQUniversity advanced History unit (i.e. not first year, level one).
- Students should choose a submitted essay they are proud of, edit, extend, and improve it paying particular attention to their marker's feedback, and submit it via email to their Unit Coordinator for consideration by 1 November.
- The essay must be 3000 words, not including footnotes or bibliography (10% longer or shorter is acceptable).
- The essay must use Turabian referencing.

Judging

The prize will be judged on the following:

- Excellent, accurate and relevant historical content
- Meticulous research and the skillful use of primary and secondary sources
- Outstanding essay writing skills and English expression
- Correct use of Turabian referencing
- The Coordinators of advanced History units will inform students about the prize and collect entries. They will create a short list of no more than four entries. The short-list will be sent to either a judge or a judging panel. The initial judge will be Steve Mullins.

Prize

The winner will receive a certificate and a book. They will have their achievement recognised on the CQU website.
