NOTES

1. Course
In CQUniversity terminology, a 'course' is a subject or unit of study. Please note that enrolment in some distance education courses require compulsory attendance at a residential school on a CQUniversity campus.
The SUN course list, including campus and term availability, is available on the SUN website (www.cqu.edu.au/sun).
2. Learning Unique Identifiers (LUI)
Learning Unique Identifiers are allocated to secondary school students in the year before they turn 16 years of age. The University requires your LUI to transfer credits to your Queensland Certificate of Education (QCE) if courses are successfully completed. If a LUI is not provided, your application cannot be processed.
3. The nominated school contact will receive ongoing communication in relation to students currently enrolled in the SUN program, as well as information regarding the SUN program in general (including promotional material).
The school contact is generally the Guidance Officer or Head of Senior Studies at your school.
4. Your most recent report card must be emailed directly from your school contact. Alternatively, we will accept a certified copy of your report card. Certification can be obtained from a Justice of the Peace, Commissioner for Declarations or your school principal.
