1 PURPOSE

The Council of Central Queensland University has a number of Committees which are established from time to time. The Committees are established to ensure the Council’s effectiveness and operations through their in-depth consideration of issues and facilitation of Council’s ability to discharge its responsibilities judiciously and effectively.

The Council Committees perform four main functions:
- doing preparatory work leading up to decisions
- carrying out tasks on behalf of the governing body
- implementing certain operations and activities, and
- serving as a training ground.

2 SCOPE

This document applies to all sub-committees of the University Council, whether new or existing.

3 EFFECTIVE DATE

2 February 2015

4 LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY

Central Queensland University Act 1998 Qld

5 POLICY STATEMENT

Committees should be established when at least one of the following conditions occur:
- an area of activity requires more in-depth review and consideration than can be provided as part of regular Council meetings
- an area of activity requires specific expertise which is not available on Council
- an area of activity requires confidential discussion and potentially a decision where, because of the conflicts of interest inherent in the current structure of Council, the matter cannot be discussed by Council as a whole
- an area requires decisions, which Council do not wish to delegate to management, but at the same time do not believe that Council as a whole needs to make, and/or
- a committee can better facilitate communication between Council and management in particular, or the University community in general, than is possible using other methods of communication.

The Central Queensland University Act 1998 s40 provides that Council may establish an Academic Board. The Act does not require the establishment of any Committees of Council. However, it is envisaged that Council may have the following Committees from time to time:
- Academic Board
- Audit, Compliance and Risk Committee
- Chancellor’s Committee
- Ceremonial and Honorary Awards Committee, and
- Planning and Resources Committee.
