1 PURPOSE

1.1 This policy informs students and staff of the legislative requirements that underpin a range of equity related policies, principles, procedures and programs at CQUniversity in learning and teaching, research, employment, student services and engagement.

1.2 In fulfilling its obligations, the University takes all necessary steps to create a safe, fair, equitable and inclusive learning and work environment. The University also takes a positive role in informing and educating students and staff of their rights and responsibilities in fostering a learning community that values equality. It does not tolerate unlawful discrimination, harassment or victimisation in any form.

2 SCOPE

2.1 This policy applies to all CQUniversity students, staff, committees and the University Council.

3 POLICY STATEMENT

3.1 CQUniversity is dedicated to providing an environment that upholds the principles of social justice, equity, diversity and social inclusion. It strives to build a vibrant community which respects the inherent dignity of the individual and values the unique knowledge, skills, abilities, life skills and competencies that each person can contribute to learning and workplace culture.

3.2 As an educator and employer, CQUniversity affirms its commitment to a comprehensive policy of Equal Opportunity in regard to education and employment in which individuals are selected for study or employment solely on the basis of their relevant merits and abilities.

3.3 All staff are required to undertake relevant training, including zero tolerance and cultural responsiveness training.

3.4 The University gives a high priority to realising the aspirations of those who want to participate in higher education, regardless of their background. It is committed to overcoming barriers, improving access and wider participation into education so that individuals can reach their full potential.
As an equal opportunity employer, the University ensures that all recruitment, selection, promotion and training opportunities are made on the basis of merit, whereby decisions are made without reference to unrelated personal characteristics, such as gender and sexual identity, race, ethnic background, marital status, age, sexual preference, religion or disability.

4 RESPONSIBILITIES

Compliance, monitoring and review

4.1 Overall responsibility for the implementation of this equity policy resides with the Vice Chancellor and President.

4.2 All members of the University Council, Deputy Vice-Chancellors, Pro-Vice Chancellors, Executive Deans, Heads of Divisions and Managers are responsible for the implementation of this policy and associated policies, principles and procedures.

4.3 All staff and students are responsible for complying with this policy. Compliance monitoring occurs through exception reporting in matters raised under the Student Complaints Policy and Procedures and the Workplace Harassment (Bullying), Sexual Harassment and Unlawful Discrimination Policy and Procedures.

Reporting

4.4 No additional reporting is required.

Records management

4.5 Staff must maintain all records relevant to administering this policy in a recognised University recordkeeping system.
