1 PURPOSE

- 1.1 English language requirements must be consistent across all students accepted into CQUniversity courses, as defined by Academic Board.
- 1.2 International or domestic students born outside of Australia, Canada, New Zealand, United Kingdom, Ireland, South Africa or the United States of America need to meet English language proficiency requirements at specified levels in order to be eligible for entry to any higher education or vocational education course offered by CQUniversity, whether foundation studies, certificate courses, diploma courses, undergraduate courses, postgraduate coursework courses, or research higher degrees.
- 1.3 This policy and procedure sets out the minimum requirements, and the alternative evidence of achievement pathways, which are acceptable to CQUniversity.

2 SCOPE

- 2.1 Admissions staff will apply this policy and procedure when considering applications for places in any CQUniversity higher education or vocational education course.

3 POLICY STATEMENT

- 3.1 The English language requirements outlined in this document are the minimum levels determined by CQUniversity's Academic Board for admission to its various higher education and vocational education courses.
- 3.2 Independent of this, the Department of Home Affairs sets requirements for students to obtain a student visa. At the time of writing these requirements, international students applying for degree studies from countries determined by the Department of Home Affairs to be Assessment Level 3 must provide a satisfactory academic International English Language Testing System (IELTS) test score or equivalent when applying for a student visa. Students should refer to the Application Guide to view current Australian Government regulations.

- 3.3 To be eligible for admission to CQUniversity's academic courses, in addition to academic prerequisites, international applicants or domestic students born outside of Australia, Canada, New Zealand, United Kingdom, Ireland, South Africa or the United States of America for all courses are required to have an acceptable level of competence in writing, reading, speaking and understanding English. In general, test results are valid for two years prior to the date of the applicant's first commencement term.

4 PROCEDURE

- 4.1 The following table provides a guide to the English entry requirements. Each student will be assessed individually, and other equivalent English preparation, or combinations of English preparation, will be considered. Competence needs to be equivalent to one of the following:

[#] Medium of instruction for English is assessed against the Country Education Profiles on Australian Education International (AEI). English instruction will only be accepted if Australian Education International states that English is the language of instruction relevant to the country, education level or institution. In these instances, however, CQUniversity reserves the right to request proof of English language proficiency.

 English language studies will be CQUniversity-approved if they satisfy the conditions of:

- NEAS accreditation
- CRICOS registered provider and course, and
- required an entry test (Academic IELTS or TOEFL). Calculation of the equivalence of outcome will be based on incremental improvement of 0.5 Academic IELTS for each 10 week course of language study (e.g. entry with Academic IELTS of 5.0 followed by 10 weeks study will be equivalent to an outcome of Academic IELTS 5.5).

4.2 Exceptions:

- Students should refer to the CQUniversity Handbook for details of English language requirements and exceptions before applying for entry into a course.

4.3 Prospective students will be required to provide certified documentation to verify any of the above circumstances, including the entry testing for English language studies.

4.4 If a student is unable to meet the above criteria, language courses are available at Rockhampton, Brisbane, Sydney, and Melbourne campuses.

5 RESPONSIBILITIES

Compliance, monitoring and review

- 5.1 This document incorporates all current English language requirements, many of which have been separately approved as part of a course approval. At this time, there are no changes to the requirements.
- 5.2 If changes are required, the Senior Deputy Vice-Chancellor (International and Services) will be responsible for researching the industry, developing change proposals, and planning the implementation of the change.
- 5.3 The Deputy Director, International Operations and the Manager, Student Admissions and Advice Centre are responsible for ensuring compliance by auditing student files.

Reporting

- 5.4 The University will report any information or data as prescribed in regulatory reporting requirements.

Records management

- 5.5 Staff must maintain all records relevant to administering this policy and procedure in a recognised University recordkeeping system.

6 DEFINITIONS

- 6.1 Terms not defined in this document may be in the University glossary.
